

"A solvable noncommutative Quantum Field Theory"

Abstract: In order to improve QFT one treats models on quantized space-time. They lead to matrix models. A cubic interaction leads to an integrable model and all correlation functions can be obtained. The more interesting quartic model was almost completely analyzed recently. We mention how the triviality problem is avoided.