

Ettore Minguzzi

Università degli Studi di Firenze

“Causality theory for cone structures and the distance formula”

Abstract: I present some elements of causality theory focusing on low regularity and anisotropy. Our main objective is to address the problem of representing the topology, order and metric properties of spacetime with a suitable set of time functions.