

Christian Hainzl, LMU München
Bosonic features of fermionic systems

Abstract: We study the correlation energy of the high as well as low density Fermi gas. In both cases we achieve a result on the ground state energy by treating two fermions, one outside and one inside the Fermi sea, as composite boson.